

AGRONOMY DAY 2019

WHEN: Saturday April 13th, 2019. Registration opens for 9am (Coffee & Donuts will be served). Meeting to commence for 9:30am sharp!

Lunch will be included

WHERE: Days Inn. Lindsay (134 Angeline St.)

WHAT TO EXPECT: We have two Fantastic guest speakers lined up .

Pete Johnson, A.K.A. Wheat Pete the agronomist for RealAgriculture.com and he loves to talk WHEAT! His weekly update, "Wheat Pete's Word", gives timely tips and answers to questions that growers ask.

Peter was the Provincial Cereal Specialist, part of the Field Crop team, with the Ontario Ministry of Agriculture, Food and Rural Affairs for 30 years (retired 2015). He is treasurer and past-chair of the Ontario Cereal Crop Committee. He co-founded the Great Lakes Wheat Workers group.

Darrell Wade has been a part of the farming community his entire life. He grew up on a farm and still lives on a farm today with his family. He is the founder of Farm Life Financial Planning

Group and his role is to empower farm families to keep farming and ensure there is family harmony when building tax efficient succession plans.

He is certified through the Canadian Association of Farm Advisors and a certified Family Enterprise Advisor.

- Succession Planning
- Micro Essentials SZ now available at Sunderland Co-operative.
- Update on N watch for corn
- Federal carbon tax effective April 1st, 2019
- Integration of the 4R's
- Board Representation and GM will be available for Q&A Period

We hope to have a great turn out for this fun and informative event.

Please R.S.V.P By April 10th